AI Assisted Problem Solving

- AI/ML Algorithms work best in identifying Patterns.
- Pattern identification is 1st step in Problem solving
- Most Medical Issues are solved by Pattern Recognition
- Fast Recognition of Medical Issue leads to Better Treatment

Case Study: ERAM

- Named after Erum Zafar, whose personal journey with autism inspired the project.
- AI Based Screening and Recognition of Autistic People
- Use of Therapeutic games, speech assistance, progress tracking, & multilingual Chatbot
- Bridges the gap caused by limited awareness, high diagnostic costs, and shortage of specialists

Conclusion

// AI will never replace Medical Judgment
It simply Speeds up connecting the links making Treatment Faster and More Effective.

Tools like ERAM show that AI support can be extended Beyond the Everyday Software Developer's Office and Into every walk of Life, Including but not limited to Medicine
